

Erica Fielder Studio

Art, Word and the Wild

OWNER:

Erica Fielder Studio: Interpretive Displays Start to Finish. Fort Bragg, CA (1983 to Present)

EDUCATION:

MFA in Visual Art, Vermont College, Montpelier, VT

Additional course work in biology, botany, dendrology, geology and ornithology,

U.C. Berkeley and College of the Redwoods, Fort Bragg, CA

Graphic Design Studies, College of the Redwoods, CA

Lifetime Elementary Teaching Credential (science & environment), California State University, Hayward, CA

BA, University of Washington, Seattle, WA

AWARDS:

Award of Excellence for Regional Park Design (2015)

Mayor's Well Done Award (2015)

Sustainable Small Business Award for Success in Mendocino County (2008)

Threshold Foundation Award for Visionary Creativity (2002)

Mendocino Coast Local Environmentalist Award (1999)

SELECTED CLIENT LIST AND PROJECTS:

Napa Valley Vine Trail Coalition, Napa Valley Vine Trail, 18 interpretive panels. (2016)

City of Fort Bragg Noyo Headlands Park, 20 interpretive panels. (2016)

Anza Borrego Desert State Park, illustrations. (2016)

Lake Solano Park Visitor Center, interactive displays. (2015)

American Canyon Regional Open Space District, interpretive benches. (2012)

Government of Pago Pago, American Samoa, panels. (2012)

Bay Model, Army Corps of Engineers, Sausalito, panels. (2007)

WRITING:

Interpretive Nature Guides, California Department of Parks and Recreation. (1996-2000)

City Safaris: A Sierra Club Explorer's Guide to Urban Adventures for Grown ups and Kids,

Sierra Club Books. 1987)

Ecology for City Kids, Published and distributed through a grant from the San Francisco Foundation. (1976)

MEMBERSHIPS:

Mendocino Coast Audubon Society, Christmas Bird Count Team Leader

National Association for Interpretation, Exhibitor and Presenter

Graphic Artists Guild

Mendocino Coast Botanical Gardens, Display Designer

Coast Observation and Seabird Survey Team (COASST), Citizen Scientist Participant